SELDOM does a young man become the Dean of Men and the Director of Admissions in a large college. And seldom, if such a man is appointed, does he, in the short space of a year, make a deep and lasting impression on the lives of the students and faculty members with whom he works.

Such an educator, counselor, teacher, and friend is Dean Nils Yngve Wessell. We of the Class of 1940, the first class to graduate since he came to Tufts, dedicate our year book to Dean Wessell and wish him many years of continued happiness and success at Tufts College.

DEDICATION

F O R E W O R D

EVERY YEAR the editors of a college yearbook are faced with the problem of making the book different than it has ever been before. We have not attempted to make any radical changes in the 1940 Jumbo Book but merely to embody the best ideas in past books and incorporate a few original ideas.

The chief characteristic of this year's book is the fact that it is printed entirely in brown and blue ink. The chief feature is the Pictorial Section of campus views. The chief changes are the combining of the Tufts and Jackson seniors in the Senior Section, the inclusion of all clubs and organizations in the Activities Section, and the pictures of the fraternity entrances and sorority rooms in the Fraternity Section.

We hope you get as much enjoyment from looking at the book as we did in compiling it.

TUFTS COLLEGE has one of the most beautiful campuses in this part of the country. On the next eight pages are pictures of some of the numerous buildings on the Hill. To the right is the view through the portal between Miner and Paige Halls which is so familiar to students. Below is a view of the entrance to Miner Hall. In the corner is a view of the wing of Goddard Chapel.

STRATTON HALL is one of the largest of the eight girls' dormitories and faces the oval and golf course.

RICHARDSON HOUSE has served Tufts in many capacities in its years of existence. It is now one of the larger girls' dormitories.

METCALF HALL with its new addition is the largest girls' dormitory on the Hill. It also includes one of the two women's dining rooms.

CAPEN HOUSE used to be the President's House. It is situated on Professors Row and is now used as a girls' dormitory.

BRAKER HALL is one of the busiest buildings on the Hill during the day, housing the departments of History, Psychology, Economics, Philosophy, and Sociology.

WEST HALL is one of the oldest and one of the largest men's dormitories. It is situated on the Hill overlooking Barnum Museum and the reservoir.

GAGER GATE marks the entrance to the Hill where the buildings of the Liberal Arts School, the School of Religion, and the Administration are located.

TUFTS is particularly beautiful in the winter when a good snow storm brings out all its natural loveliness. On this page are two pictures of Tufts during a snowstorm, one from Dearborn Gate and the other looking up Latin Way toward the Hill.

TUFTS College is a rapidly growing and advancing seat of learning in New England. On the Hill are the School of Liberal Arts, Jackson College for Women, Engineering School, Bromfield-Pearson School, School of Religion, Graduate School, and Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy. The Medical and Dental Schools are in Boston.

Truly of university scope, Tufts is sure to achieve continued success in educational circles under the leadership of a fine group of administrators and an active, loyal and capable faculty.

ADMINISTRATION

THE Class of 1940 has been privileged to have been at Tufts under the administration of two Presidents and one acting President. We hold in deep esteem the fond memory of Dr. Albert Cousens and his years of service to Tufts.

We will never forget faithful, loyal, hard-working Professor George Miller. We look forward to a new, progressive Tufts under the leadership of ambitious, witty, learned Dr. Leonard Carmichael. The future of Tufts is bright under such administrators.

IN MEMORIAM

HERBERT VINCENT NEAL, Ph.D., Sc.D.
 Feb. 21, 1869 — Feb. 21, 1940

MORE than a few Tufts men and women thank Dr. Neal for their interest and success in the field of Zoology. Every student who knew him is grateful that he so generously shared his tried philosophy with his vast knowledge of his particular field.

For twenty-five years Dr. Neal was a professor at Tufts College; for eleven years Dean of the Graduate School. He received degrees from Bates and Harvard and studied at the University of Munich. He wrote "Comparative Anatomy of Vertebrates," and was a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a member of the American Society of Naturalists and many other scientific organizations.

THE most important section in any college yearbook is that devoted to the student classes. This year the class section includes both the graduating class pictures and write-ups and the underclass listings. The senior class members from the Liberal Arts School, the Engineering School, and Jackson College are combined in one group arranged alphabetically.

The underclassmen are listed by classes immediately following the senior section with the officers of their respective classes at the beginning of each list.

CLASSES

Third Row: Fred Jenkins, William Gerber
Second Row: Lauris Grant, Stephen Demirjian
Front Row: Edward Sheehan, David Pollard

CLASS OF 1940

THE officers of the class are the representative leaders elected by their fellow students. Edward Sheehan has been President of the Tufts Class of 1940 for four successive years. The other officers are: Vice President, David Pollard; Secretary, Stephen Demirjian; Treasurer, Frederick Jenkins; Marshall, Lauris Grant; and Historian, William Gerber.

The Jackson Class of 1940 officers are: President, Jane Carter; Vice President, Virginia Milnes; Secretary, Helen Hersey; Treasurer, Emily Bettencourt; Marshall, Dorothy Marsh; and Historian, Harriet Blodgett.

THERE are thirty-six separate underclass organizations represented in the Activities Section of the 1940 Jumbo Book. These clubs and societies range from the Honorary Societies down to such new clubs as the Mountain Club and the Forensic Society, both formed in 1940.

Tufts College offers the student clubs in almost any field of interest including several religious clubs, clubs in each major department, dramatic and musical organizations and journalistic organizations.

STUDENT COUNCILS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

THE Tufts Student Council regulates and controls all matters concerning student life and activities. During the year, under the leadership of President Allen Hatch, it attempted to unify and improve the extra-curricular program.

THE Jackson Student Council holds regular meetings to discuss infractions of college rules and sponsor the entertainment of sub-freshmen and the formal dinners at the various dining halls. The president for 1939-40 was Theiss English.

MEMBERSHIP in Tower Cross is the crowning achievement of all extra-curricular activities, and because of the honor due its members the initiation ceremonies occur on Junior Day. They become active first as ushers at the functions of commencement.

Tufts' Night at Pops, as run by Tower Cross this year, will long be remembered for the introduction of the Jumbo Victory March. Just before Christmas the first College Sing in many years was successfully conducted and the tradition firmly re-established through the fine work of the society.

In addition to these outstanding events Tower Cross conducted the sports dances and the elections of the junior and sophomore classes. Its activities ended with the successful completion of the commencement season.

THE ten men selected to represent the Junior Class as its Ivy Society performed their first duties as ushers at Academic Awards. During the following week they conducted temporary freshman elections, and the remainder of the semester was spent in running senior and permanent freshman elections, as well as in supervising the selection of the class jackets.

Then came the most important task of the year, the planning of Junior Week-end, and the wonderful time enjoyed by the entire college community is proof of the quality of their work. The final service of the society, the preparation and publication of the 1940-41 Ivy Book, will occupy much of the summer vacation of the members.

Ivy Society for 1939-1940: William McMahon, President; John Dee, Vice President; Philip Gomez, Treasurer; Everett Bachman, William Lynch, Student Council Representatives; James Breen, Louis Gessay, Mark Hanabury, Ernest Loret, Murray Kenney.

IVY SOCIETY

SWORD AND SHIELD, the Sophomore Honorary Society, faithfully fulfilled its main purpose by its careful enforcement of the freshman traditions through its campus supervision and its regular meetings. Outstanding among the other functions of Sword and Shield were the successful informal dances which it sponsored. This year the somewhat-forgotten duty of welcoming visitors to the college was revived, especially in the case of visiting teams who were met and shown the Tufts spirit of friendliness by members of the society.

Sword and Shield for 1939-1940: President, Robert Rutter; Vice President, Arthur Harrison; Treasurer, Walter Hall; Recording Secretary, Vincent Napoli; Corresponding Secretary, Raymond Valente; Student Council Representative, Robert Scannell; and John Manley, Grant Curtis, Ralph Ritchie, Richard Van Gundy, Albert Schaal, Marshall Snyder.

DELTA of Massachusetts Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the National Honorary Scholastic Fraternity, is comprised of students elected on the basis of scholarship from the first third of the senior class of Jackson College and the School of Liberal Arts.

Fourteen students and two faculty members were initiated at the annual business meeting in November. These new members and the guests heard an address by Professor Worrall. The annual literary exercises and reception were conducted in May.

Phi Beta Kappa for 1939-1940: Class of 1939: Marjorie Burnham, Blanche Downing, Daniel Samson, Elliot Sweetser, Edward Burns, Walter Feldman, Andrew Mastovie; Class of 1940: Elinor Gilliatt, Barbara Richardson, Irene Stafford, George Atwater, Paul Weleh, Charles Baker, David Swett; Honorary Membership: Professor Brotherston, Williams, '03, and Professor Blanehard, Clark, '16.

PHI BETA KAPPA

DELTA of Massachusetts Chapter of Tau Beta Pi, the National Honorary Engineering Fraternity, is comprised of those students from the first quarter of the senior class and the first eighth of the junior class who best exemplify the highest type of scholarship, integrity, and breadth of interest.

During the current season regular business meetings presented prominent speakers from a variety of professional fields. A joint meeting with the chapters of M. I. T. and W. P. I. was also conducted. Tau Beta Pi was a leading influence in the successful movement for the establishment of the Dean's List in the Engineering School.

THE 1940 Jumbo Book is a larger and better yearbook than the Tufts campus has ever seen. Under the leadership of Frederick Diekerman, Editor-in-Chief; Harriet Blodgett, Jackson Editor; and Robert Hawkins, Business Manager many new features were inaugurated. For the first time the Jackson and Tufts senior pictures were mixed in one section. A special ten page pictorial section was the feature of the book printed in blue and brown ink.

Others on the editorial staff included Dwight Ayers, Activities Editor; Donald Woods, Faculty Editor; Wallace Baylies, Fraternity Editor; William Hickey, Sports Editor; Leo LaPalme and James Haggerty, Senior Editors; Robert Larkin, Underclass Editor; and J. William Harrison, Photographic Editor. These seniors were assisted by W. Wells, P. Rush, F. Pote, M. Stone, L. Michell, W. McMahon, R. Skuse, L. Herman, A. Milhench, O. Santopietro.

Jackson assistants included V. Guild, S. Boulanger, R. Clark, M. Gott, B. Richardson, M. Savage, J. Carter, P. Towns.

JUMBO BOOK

OUTSTANDING events of the year for the Pen, Paint and Pretzels Society were the successful presentations of such plays as Edna Ferber's The Royal Family, Karel Capel's R. U. R., and Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. Minor productions of one-act experimental and original plays were given, and theatre parties were sponsored at Boston theatres for the benefit of all. Continuing its policy of bringing leading figures of the stage to the Hill the society introduced Charles Timblin, from the cast of Tobacco Road, and Mrs. Caroline Samoi-off to the college community as a whole. In January an interesting demonstration of acting technique was given by the class in dramatic interpretation. The final production was "Johnson over Jordon".

The Three P's officers for 1939-1940: President, Joseph Reed; Vice President, Cecile Berle; Secretary, Ruth Clark; Business Manager, Arnold Silver; and members: Robert Chatfield, John Dockstader, Bernard Glaser, Ruth Odell, Wilma Ray, Kenneth VanAuken, Justine Wells, Donald Woods.

THE Tufts Weekly is the official news organ of the campus community. As a progressive journal sponsoring the ideas and activities of the student body it maintains a five star policy: equality of publicity for all organizations, expression of the opinions of students, news from all the five Tufts schools, editorials concerned with the vital interests of the campus, and, in general, a publication of Tufts, by Tufts, and for Tufts in all respects.

Across a six column spread of an average six-page edition are such features as Around the Hill, Coed Campus Chats, Jumbo Chatter, and Engine-airs. The staff for 1939-1940: Editors, Alfred Symonds and Frederick Dickerman; Jackson Editor, Anne Leuthy; Sports Editor, Richard Skuse; Associate Editor, Clifford Wauters; Business Manager, Stuart Stern; Circulation Manager, Gordon Brainerd. Marion Savage, William McMahon, and Arnold Fine wrote special columns, and there were over thirty other students working for the paper.

THE Tuftonian maintained its traditional standards of excellency and interest as the voice of creative literature at Tufts during this past year. With an enlarged staff and an improved form of publication a sincere attempt was made to appeal to the widely-varying interests which are represented in the various schools. The enthusiasm of the reception tendered the three issues by the college community would seem to indicate some degree of success in this attempt.

THE Jackson All Around Club is a social organization of which every Jackson girl is a member. Its purpose is to provide opportunities for social contacts among both students and alumnae.

On Homcoming Day the annual Jackson Activities Tea was held at Packard Hall, acquainting the freshmen with the activities sponsored at Jackson.

A Christmas Tea Dance was held at Cousens Gymnasium December 16. Christmas decorations and service by members of the faculty added to the festive atmosphere. Those attending brought contributions for Christmas baskets.

The appearance of the famous Humphry-Weidman Dance Team on March 15 was a highlight of the year, and the Jackson Spring Formal, memorable for its music and decorations, brought to a climax the year's program. Officers for 1939-40: President, Barbara Nickerson; Vice President, Florence Towle; Secretary, Barbara Derby; Treasurer, Margaret Hall.

THIS year the college band reached a new high in their performances and in the respect of the entire student body. It was forty members strong on Tufts Night, and this number reached fifty by October ninth when a successful jamboree was staged in quest of new uniforms. Newly attired the members continued the creditable performances and followed the team to Brown, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts State.

The musical ability offered was fully utilized by the new director, Michael Denesuk, who also worked in collaboration with Drum Major McMahon in developing many clever marching maneuvers.

After the football season the organization continued its activities, playing at basketball games and doing concert work. Several recordings of Tufts songs were also made. The Tufts College Band will close one of the most successful years in its history by playing at various functions during commencement week-end.

COLLEGE BAND

THE GLEE CLUB, the oldest musical organization in the college, came into existence in 1863, and since that time it has taken various forms with varying degrees of success. Shortly after the turn of the century the first Jackson Glee Club was formed, and from time to time the combined clubs have given many concerts.

The year 1914 was a banner one for the club for it was at that time a recording of "Tufts Mosaic" was made at the Columbia Studios. Enthusiasm reached a new high in 1925 when three concerts were given before a total of two thousand nine hundred people.

The college's fine string quartet appears at chapel exercises and, on many occasions, with the Glee Club. This year Professor Lewis has planned a large concert for the college featuring not only the combined glee clubs but also the concert orchestra.

THE STRING QUARTET

IN the last few years the string quartet has become one of the most active musical organizations on the hill. Its popularity was regained with its renewed appearance with the glee club. Since that time the string quartet has participated in the chapel musical programs more often than any other group, and has also entertained before several of the weekly University Lectures. The quartet plays a unique type of music which has been well received.

The present quartet consists of: Sheldon Rottenberg, first violin; Michael Denesuk, second violin; Edward Hahn, viola, and Madelaine Nassi, cellist.

TUFTS YACHT CLUB

STARTED in the late nineties, the Tufts Yacht Club was reorganized in 1936 and became a member of the Intercollegiate Yacht-Racing Association in 1939. The Club participated in several Fall regattas, the Boston Dinghy Club Regatta and the Brown Invitation Regatta. Spring Regattas were also held with Brown, M. I. T., and the Navy. Regular afternoon informal sailing was enjoyed by the members, and friends on the Charles River during the Spring.

The officers for 1939-1940 were: Commodore, Richard Kirkpatrick; Rear-Commodore, Philip Varney; Secretary, Charles Cosser; Treasurer John Bielecki.

TUFTS MOUNTAIN CLUB

THIS year the Tufts Ski Club merged with the Tufts Mountain Club to form the popular Mountain Club which has its new headquarters in a seven room, Cape Cod lodge in Wonolancet, N. H. Skiing in winter and hiking, riding, canoeing, and swimming were enjoyed by many new members. Special weekends were planned and carried out for various groups on the hill. Several successful ski meets were held with other schools during the winter.

The officers for 1939-1940 were: William Ballard, Alumni Chairman; Walter Perry, Alumni Membership; Bradford Davis, Alumni Publicity; Albert Schaal, Executive Secretary-On-Hill; James Fitzgerald, Publicity Agent; Henrietta Brown, Jackson Representative.

Avukah Officers

THE NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club, an organization to promote religious and social activities among Catholic students of Tufts, participated in joint meetings with clubs of other colleges, forum discussions, and supper meetings. The Communion Breakfast was held in December. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Nancy Quinzani; Vice President, Francis Callahan; Treasurer, Dustin Shiepe; Secretaries, Marie Herlihy and Veronica Costello; Chaplain, Father Thomas.

THE AVUKAH SOCIETY

The Tufts Chapter of Avukah Society, an organization for the promotion of a better understanding of Jewish problems and Zionist work, works in cooperation with other chapters of the national organization. Special study groups met at regular intervals during the year. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Harold Novick; Vice President, Lawrence Freedman; Treasurer, David Hays; Secretaries, Eleanor Cohen and Miriam Berliner.

THE TUFTS UNITY CLUB

The Phillips Brooks Club is an organization of students interested in the Episcopal Church. Its activities included monthly luncheon meetings with speakers from the clergy, the celebration of the Holy Eucharist semi-monthly in Crane Chapel, a Christmas party and a spring picnic. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Murray Kenney; Vice President, Virginia Vibert; Secretary, Doreen Simpson; Stewardess, Margaret Sheriff.

PHILLIPS BROOKS CLUB

The Unity Club, an organization for all Unitarians, Universalists, and other religious liberals, met regularly throughout the year in Crane Library. Prominent religious authorities and timely discussions were featured. It sponsored, with other clubs of this area, eight Town and Gown Dances at Repertory Hall. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Richard Bagnell; Vice President, John Morey; Secretary, Kenneth Peterson.

Representatives went as delegates to meetings of the senior society in Boston, and attended the annual convention in Worcester. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Robert Edwards; Vice President, George Reed; Secretary-Treasurer, Harry Sawtell.

A. S. C. E.

The student branch of the American Society of Civil Engineers carried on its policy of bringing students into contact with leaders of the profession through a program of meetings at which were presented outstanding speakers. Officers for 1939-1940: President, John Cagnetta; Vice President, Richard Kirkpatrick; Secretary, Charles Weed; Treasurer, Robert Speneer; Faculty Advisor, Professor Crabtree.

A. I. E. E.

The student branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers met once a month with speakers from different companies. Inspectional tours of factories were sponsored and a joint meeting with the branches of M. I. T. and Northeastern was conducted in February. The annual outing was held in the spring. Officers for 1939-1940: Chairman, Leighton Greenough; Vice Chairman, Paul Lindstrom; Secretary-Treasurer, Charles Lister.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

The Chemical Society, an organization composed mainly of chemical majors, presented speakers, demonstrations, and movies on a variety of subjects at its regular meetings during the year. In addition several field trips to local industrial plants were taken. Officers for 1939-1940: President, George Pickering; Vice President, Daniel McLean; Secretary, Barbara Mason; Treasurer, Stanley Kazeniae.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club was successful in offering students and faculty members fine meetings and social periods for discussions. Among the speakers of the year were Nancy Byrd Turner, Professor Frank Packard, and John Holmes. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Frederick Dickerman; Vice President, Emily Bettencourt; Secretary, Gertrude Aitchison; Steward, Herbert Armstrong; Faculty Advisors, Professors Blanchard and Holmes.

ECONOMICS CLUB

The Economics Club undertakes to present in a popular and understandable form profitable discussions of economic problems of present importance. To this end prominent economists, among whom was Mrs. Sweezy, spoke at the regular meetings. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Albert Goldman; Vice President, William Gerber; Secretary-Treasurer, Paul Welch; Faculty Advisor, Professor Tarshis.

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club, whose purpose is to foster interest in the culture of the German people, enjoyed a successful year. Included among its speakers were Frank Kefferstan and Professor Provinc. The Christmas meeting featured the singing of German carols. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Frank Kefferstan; Vice President, Helene Medros; Secretary, Marjorie Falls; Treasurer, Arnold Silver; Faculty Advisor, Professor Reed.

THE I. R. CLUB

The International Relations Club aims at the promotion of interest in current history and in the effect of world affairs on our country. During the year the club heard Mrs. Sweczy, Professor Staley, Reverend Pomeroy and other speakers. Officers for 1939-1940: President, William Gerber; Vice President, Lawrence Freedman; Secretary, Frances Steed; Treasurer, David Swett; Faculty Advisor, Professor Daly.

PRE-MEDICAL SOCIETY

The Pre-Medical Society, founded to further knowledge and friendship among pre-medical students, held monthly meetings throughout the year. Active participation in the discussions by all in attendance made these informal gatherings both pleasant and profitable. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Walter Gorday; Vice President, William Hickey; Secretary, Helen Niemi; Treasurer, Clifford Wauters.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Tufts Historical Society presented prominent speakers at the monthly meetings, among whom were Professors Nelson of Duke and Knapton of Wheaton. Social gatherings at the homes of faculty members and the annual outing in May were enjoyed by members. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Dwight Ayers; Vice President, Theiss English; Secretary-Treasurer, Eleanor Barwick; Faculty Advisor, Professor Bartlett.

Lambert-Kingsley Officers

LAMBERT-KINGSLEY

The Lambert-Kingsley Society, an honorary biology society, was organized for fellowship research and as a forum on original work. The monthly programs consisted of the presentation of guest speakers and the reading of students' papers. The annual Biology Open House was also conducted. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Thomas Cronin; Vice President, Charles Streeter; Secretary, Caroline Barker; Treasurer, Robert Brown; Steward, Thomas McGregor.

OFF-HILL SOCIETY

The Off-Hill Club, was organized to encourage interest in college affairs on the part of commuting students. It was with this purpose in mind that speakers, including President Carmichael, were presented at the monthly meetings, and the annual luncheon was sponsored. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Richard Carr; Vice President, Robert Mobbs; Secretary, Joseph Cafarella; Treasurer, Donald Bedell.

Off-Hill Club Officers

French Club Officers

Yacht Club Officers

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club, an organization to propagate French Culture at Tufts, heard prominent professors from Harvard and Boston College and presented several French films during the year. Many songs were learned and enjoyed at the social gatherings which follow the regular meetings. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Elinor Gilliatt; Vice President, Ruth Spurr; Secretary, Barbara Marshall; Treasurer, Richard Skuse.

TUFTCONIC

Tuftconic was organized to promote a wider interest in higher mathematics and is affiliated with the "Greater Boston Intercollegiate Mathematics Clubs Association." Talks by outstanding guest speakers followed by informal discussions and social gatherings comprised the program of the year. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Warren Brighty; Vice President, George Lewis; Secretary-Treasurer, David Vandenburg.

EVENING PARTY

The Evening Party Association conducted two successful formal dances in Cousen's Gymnasium. Members for 1939-1940: President, Joseph Reed (Theta Delta Chi); Secretary-Treasurer, William Dorin (Zeta Psi); and Arthur Kocnig (Delta Upsilon), Melvin Haas (Alpha Kappa Pi), Harold Novick (Sigma Omega Psi), Sumner Raphael (Phi Epsilon Pi), Robert Larkin (Phi Mu Delta), Alfred Della Paolera (Alpha Tau Omega).

DEBATING SOCIETY

After an absence of two years debating, we returned to the Hill this year when an active group debated against teams from the University of Maine, Bowdoin, M. I. T., Boston College, Boston University, Harvard, Carnegie Tech, Colby, Bates, and the University of New Hampshire. Members included Donald Bedell, Arthur Dowd, Jacob Gold, Joseph Reed, and Fred Demetrius, Manager.

Forensic Council

TUFTS is fortunate in having both a fine athletic building in the Cousens Gymnasium and a fine coaching staff to train the students in the various sports. Lew Manly in football, Art Cochran in basketball, Judge Ken Nash in baseball, Ding Dussault and Doe Yeager in track, Sam Ruggieri in wrestling, Bill Howard in tennis, Timmy Ring in lacrosse, and Warren Morton in soccer combine to give Tufts a superior athletic department headed by Professor Clarence "Pop" Houston.

FOOTBALL

RATED during pre-season as rather a weak, ineffective outfit, the Tufts College football team displayed a fine brand of football during the 1939 season.

Things appeared promising on October 7 when Tufts led off with a clean cut 13-2 victory over Middlebury College at Middlebury, Vermont. Jack West and Bob Patterson were outstanding in this game, both tallying touchdowns.

The Jumbos were doomed to destruction on the following week-end when the Lord Jeffs paraded over them 26-7. Jack West and Art Harrison played outstandingly for Tufts despite the loss, the former putting over the score on a ten-yard run.

Northeastern invaded the Medford Oval on October 21, and, although the Brown and Blue outplayed the Huskies, it fell short of a touchdown twice and had to be contented with a 0-0 deadlock. Art Griffin, Jack West, and Murray Kenney played brilliantly.

Though hampered by injuries the next week, Tufts amassed all her fighting spirit, and capitalized on every break in sight to defeat Williams 14-12. West, the Tufts running threat, tallied the first touchdown on a four-yard romp and kicked the extra point. Ralph Sherry, giant Jumbo tackle, picked a fumble out of the air in the second canto and galloped 37 yards to score. A pass from Griffin to Kenney accounted for the extra point.

Tufts journeyed to Providence to encounter the Brown Bear on November 4, and suffered its worst defeat in some years 54-7. Captain Griffin struck terror into the hearts of the Brown followers for two periods with his long completed forwards. Jack West went over for the sole Tuftonian touchdown. In the second half with subs pouring in and out of the game, Brown rang up six touchdowns.

After leading New Hampshire State 6-0 for three periods the next week-end, the Manlymen suffered a relapse in the final period permitting the Wildcats to push over two scores, to triumph 13-6. Grant Curtis, a newcomer at fullback, crashed the New Hampshire line from the one-yard line.

A powerful Bowdoin team invaded the Tufts Oval on November 18 and outfought Tufts to a 15-6 verdict. The Jumbos played good football, but serious fumbles in the Tufts backfield deep in its own territory led directly to Bowdoin touchdowns. Jack West scored his 28th point for Tufts when he went over in the first stanza.

The Jumbos wrote "finis" to the 1939 campaign with an overwhelming 34-7 victory against Mass. State. Captain Art Griffin wound up his playing career for Tufts in a blaze of glory by scoring one touchdown, passing to West, Smith, and Hanabury for the others and place-kicking four extra points.

BASKETBALL

THE 1940 Tufts Varsity Basketball Team successfully completed a nineteen game schedule with twelve wins and seven losses. On December 5, the Brown and Blue opened the season, trouncing Assumption 60-21. The two game trip to Middlebury and Hanover resulted in a .500 average. The Jumbos came back strong in the closing minutes to defeat Middlebury 31-27; on the next night, a rangy Dartmouth squad handed Tufts its first setback, 49-31. The basketballers added two more victories by successively defeating Northeastern 57-43, and University of Vermont 47-38 at the Cousens Gym.

A win at the expense of the New Hampshire University Wildeats opened the 1940 part of the schedule; score 47-38. The surprise of the year was the defeat of a highly-favored Brown quintet on the latter's home floor, 40-32. A smart sophomore five from Boston University upset the hoopsters in an exciting battle by the narrow margin of 44-43. M. I. T. then invaded the home floor and were easily beaten, 51-34. The celebrated Springfield gymnasts received their only New England defeat when they were set down 49-43 in a see-saw battle.

Tufts then encountered hard luck, losing four of the next five games, all of which were played away. A fast Yale team scored a 62-35 win; the Harvard Crimson eked out a 40-38 win; Massachusetts State repulsed the Cochran men with another two point margin 42-40. Tufts broke the losing streak by a well-earned victory over Amherst 50-43. The 64-45 defeat at the hands of Rhode Island State was no disgrace, as the Rams were rated the best in New England.

The four final games were played on the home floor. Williams fought hard but went down 36-32. Brown avenged their previous defeat by running up a score of 52-42 in the return game. The rangy W. P. I. engineers were too slow, and bowed to a barrage of hoops, 54-36. The Medford spectators witnessed the most exciting game of the season when the Brown and Blue outclassed Rutgers 49-47. The boys from New Jersey rallied throughout, but the Tufts seniors made good their determination to win their last game. Captain Charlie Tibbs was outstanding with 27 points scored. This game ended the playing careers of such stellar men as Captain Tibbs, Phil Varney, Henry Pecheux, and Freddie Jenkins.

In nineteen games, Captain Tibbs scored 322 points, averaging seventeen points per game, and was the high-scorer in all but the Yale game. Captain-elect Phil Gomez, rated one of the best guards Tufts has had in recent years, remains with dependable M. Snyder and T. Haselton to form the nucleus of next year's club. An exceptionally good frosh team with a record of thirteen wins and three losses will send up H. Redgate, J. Dowd, N. DelNinno, J. Vitkauskas, G. Mernick, and J. Weldon.

ALTHOUGH the Tufts' 1939 baseball season was not the most successful in the history of the college, Captain Joe Weeks behind the plate and speedball Al Hatch on the mound rendered performances of professional caliber to attain high ranking among New England collegiate ball players. Among the outfits to drop beneath the dependable twirling of Hatch and Johnny Hughes were Lowell Textile, 12-2; Springfield, 4-3; Williams, 6-0; Providence, 9-2; and Harvard and Boston University, each of which were defeated twice. Against Yale and a powerful Brown nine the boys were unsuccessful but prevented these outfits from building up any score.

The opening of this season found Coach Nash, Captain Hatch, and the squad looking confidently forward to what may well be a banner year. Although former catcher Weeks and pitcher Hughes had been lost through graduation, both the infield and outfield were strong with veterans whose batting averages were high last year. Ex-captain Weeks' position was the object of the attention of junior Everett Bachman and sophomores Ben Gaieski and Grant Curtis. The boys were all well-matched, and all three saw service at the home plate during the season. Battling for the outfield assignments were Budrunas, Schoales, Lee, Raphaël, Harrison, Manly, and Mistretta, but the starting assignments fell to veterans Brony

The strongest link in the Jumbo line-up was the infield where veterans Joe Dineen and Leo Geary and sophomore John Driscoll were at odds. On second, junior Lou Gessay was nearly undisputed, and had little trouble maintaining his position. George Chiro at shortstop was equally well-placed but at third the battle was nip and tuck throughout the season between Mark Hanabury and senior Norman Parc.

Trouble spot of the Jumbo squad was on the mound. Captain Al Hatch, who won a large percentage of his contests last year, and who was one of the most effective men on the '39 squad, was the only proven Tufts pitcher. Fast-ball man, and most likely second choice, was junior Bob Patterson who showed flashes of strength last year. Another possible second was Paglia, an able man in controlling his pitches. Snow, Demerjian, Olsen, Gaieski, and Walsh were additional reserves.

Opening the year with three games in five days, the squad was scheduled to meet Yale at New Haven on April 8, Lowell Textile at home on the tenth, and a rugged Harvard nine on the thirteenth. Stiffest competition of the year was found in Harvard, anxious to avenge Jumbo defeats, Boston University, Holy Cross, Springfield, Yale, and Massachusetts State, which is rapidly assuming the position of major rival.

INDOOR TRACK

THE 1939-40 Indoor Track team was as a unit the greatest such squad that has ever attended Tufts College. Moreover Eddie Dugger, Bill Atkinson, Walter Hall, Dave Pollard, and Laurie Grant were the greatest individual performers on any Tufts athletic group.

The season was unmarred by defeat in any dual meet. First victim of the Jumbo athletes was New Hampshire by a score of $55\frac{1}{3}$ to $39\frac{2}{3}$ on February 3. Pollard set a new shot-put record of 43 feet 6 inches; Atkinson ran the mile in 4:36.3 minutes; and the mile relay team made 3:39 minutes time, two more new Cage records.

The second meet against Northeastern saw a 52-29 victory, and a tri-meet with Massachusetts State, and Worcester Polytechnic Institute witnessed a Jumbo win with the score Tufts 71, State 21, and W. P. I. 18.

In both the informal meets with Boston College and Harvard, Coach "Ding" Dussault's men emerged victorious, and in the V. F. W., K. of C., and B. A. A. games at the Boston Gardens, Tufts placed well. Bill Atkinson ran undefeated in New England college two-mile competition.

Ending the season, Eddie Dugger defeated the nation's finest collegiate hurdlers to set a new I. C. 4A record of 7.3 seconds in the sixty-yard high hurdles, while Bill Atkinson led the best collegiate two-milers in 9:23.8 time at the meet in New York on March 2.

OUTDOOR TRACK

WHEN Coaches Dussault and Yeager issued the initial call for spring track candidates this year they were met by potentially the greatest Tufts squad in many years. There are enough veteran performers of unusual ability on the roster to make a prediction that the Tufts outdoor track team will have done as well if not better than the indoor team by the end of the season.

Led by Captain Dave Pollard, college record holder in the shot put and discus, the team presented an almost unbroken array of men, at least two deep in every event excepting the javelin. The dashes and hurdles were ably cared for by peerless Eddie Dugger, regarded by local coaches as the greatest New England track product in a decade. Ed was assisted by Walter Hall, his shadowing teammate. In the middle distances Hall, Valente, Brainerd, King, and Flandreau offered a united front, while in the long runs Bill Atkinson, Hal Nygaard of cross-country fame, Keigan, Emery, and Alcott held forth.

Along with Captain Pollard in the weight events was Bob Sparrow, hammer throwing artist. The broad jumping department was capably taken care of by Laurie Grant, who also competed in his specialty the high jump, along with Lynch, Rutter, and Flandreau. In the pole vault, Hollis Paegal ruled the altitude scrapers' club which included Morganson, Kirkpatrick, and McLean.

WRESTLING

THE VARSITY wrestling team creditably ended the 1940 season with three wins in eight meets. In the opener, Tufts was downed by a powerful Harvard team, 24-8; Sherry and Cummings provided Tufts only wins. The Lafayette team invaded Medford on December 19, and conquered the Jumbos 19-13; Sherry, Tsolas, and Willey won for Tufts.

Tufts' first victory was over M. I. T.; Tufts 26, Engineers 8. Feener, Willey, Streeter, Loring, Sherry and Cummings defeated their opponents. A well-balanced Yale team earned a decisive victory over Tufts, 31-3; Tsolas, Tufts' 128-pound contender, won a referee's decision. A week later Tufts lost a heart-breaker to the Lord Jeffs, 17½-16½. Only an over-time draw defeated the Jumbos.

The matmen's annual road trip netted a .500 average. On February 23, Tufts lost a close one to a powerful Springfield team, 19-13. The next evening the Jumbos invaded Connecticut and ended their season with a victory over Wesleyan, 16-14. Tsolas, Streeter and Loring gained the winning points.

Captain Ralph Sherry ended four brilliant years of wrestling for Tufts, during which he was crowned New England Interscholastic Champion in the 175-pound class in his freshman year, and in all four years he was neither pinned nor lost a regulation time match.

This year's lettermen include C. Feener, G. Tsolas, A. Stevens, G. Willey, C. Streeter, L. Loring, C. Waldron, K. Sears, R. Sherry and M. Cummings.

GOLF

THE thirteenth season of intercollegiate golf at Tufts found the varsity team facing a tough schedule with but a few experienced players. The two co-captains, Bud Dempsey and "Pep" Marsh, were the only lettermen to return for the 1940 season, but Russ Nash and Nichols, a very good man from last year's frosh made it possible to make up a foursome which gave each opponent a good match. The remaining two positions on the six-man team were filled by other high men on last year's frosh team.

The 1939 season resulted in two wins and five losses. M. I. T. won, $6\frac{1}{2}$ - $2\frac{1}{2}$, followed by Bowdoin, 8-1. At Brown we lost by only one point, 5-4, but at the hands of Colby, Tufts trailed by three points, 6-3. In the next match, the Jumbo golfers reversed the 1938 W. P. I. score when they triumphed 6-0. Boston University won by one point, 5-4, and Tufts finished up the season by defeating Rhode Island State 5-4.

The schedule for this year included the same colleges, with the addition of the trip to Hartford where Tufts played Trinity. The N. E. I. G. A. finished up the year on May 17-18 on the Oakley course, the scene of many Tufts matches.

The team was ably coached by Professor Houston and managed by Co-captain Bud Dempsey.

TENNIS

THE 1939 tennis team enjoyed an excellent season of nine wins and two defeats. Led by co-captains K. Chobanian and S. Rotenberg, they smashed their way to impressive victories over Bates 8-1, Bowdoin 5-4, Colby 8-1, Clark 9-0, Wesleyan 5-4, Bates 5-1 (return match), Colby 5-4 (return match), Boston University 6-3, and W. At the opening of the 1940 season, Coach Bill Howard was faced with the problem of replacing the ace doubles team of Chobanian and Rotenberg, who were responsible in no small way for Tufts previous successes. He had, however, in Captain Henry Linden, a dependable and consistent point winner, and along with past letter-winners Bancroft, Baylies, Harrigan, Talkov, Novick, and Bonney, Coach Howard was able to build up a squad promising enough to duplicate last year's record.

The 1940 team met the same college teams as had its predecessors with the addition of Maine, at Orono, Springfield, Massachusetts State College, and the Harvard Graduates team. Eight matches of the schedule were played away while six were played on the newly-reconditioned home courts.

The directors of this year's team were Henry C. Linden, captain, William H. Howard, coach, and Abraham Taitelbaum, manager.

LACROSSE

THE 1939 lacrosse season started when Tufts invaded Cambridge and were shut out by a superior Harvard team 10-0; on April 22 the Jumbo stickmen lost to the University of New Hampshire 14-3; the Boston Lacrosse Club gave Tufts their third setback 6-4; this was followed by a 16-1 defeat at the hands of a polished Williams team. The road trip proved highly successful as the Brown and Blue defeated both Springfield and Union. They edged the Gymnasts 4-3, and on the next day conquered Union by a 6-4 score. On May 17, Tim's stickers dropped a 6-3 decision to M. I. T., while they closed the season on the short end of a 13-6 score against Dartmouth.

Led by Captain Joe Gould, eight other "T" winners in the persons of R. Armstrong, J. Ciba, C. Hammond, W. Harrison, M. Kenney, R. Sherry, S. Williams, and G. Yale provide an experienced nucleus for Tim Ring's 1940 aggregation. From last year's frosh, R. Mitchell, C. Waldron, and E. Ganley look especially capable.

On April 20 the 1940 season opened when the Brown and Blue met the Boston Lacrosse Club on the Tufts field. This was followed by a Harvard contest on the 24th. Then on May third and fourth they invaded Springfield and Williams. The M. I. T. engineers provided the opposition on May 18, while the Dartmouth Indians journeyed to Medford for the Jumbos' closing game of the year on May 22.

THE Tufts Soccer Team of 1939 won two, tied two, and lost four games. Captain Freddie Jenkins, George Kelley and Henry Peecheux were the three outstanding men of the team.

Tufts won the first game of the year against M. I. T. 3-2, with Kelley sinking two goals. At Amherst for the second game, both teams were too evenly matched; a 2-2 tie resulted with Kelley again scoring two goals. Harvard had too many men on their squad, and after three fiercely fought quarters, Tufts defense weakened and Harvard scored twice. Score: Harvard 2, Tufts 1. Jenkins and Kelley starred again in this game.

Another tie resulted from the Wesleyan invasion, 1-1. Wesleyan was the league leader, but could get through Bowser, Bennett, and Peecheux for only one goal. Jack Westervelt starred during the next game with Williams, but they were too strong, and downed our booters 1-0. Tufts suffered its second shut-out when they met W. P. I., to the tune of 2-0. Kelley was out of this game because of injuries suffered in previous games, and stellar playing by Jenkins and Bennett could not change the score.

Brown defeated Tufts 2-1 for the last loss of the season in an overtime period. Tufts finally closed the season with a win over University of Connecticut, 2-1. Kelley, Coolidge, Bennett, Milhench, Tancreto and Spaulding will return to be the nucleus of another good team.

CROSS COUNTRY

"BILL" ATKINSON and "Hal" Nygaard led one of Tufts most successful cross-country teams this year to a record of three wins, one loss, and a fifth place in the New England meet. The one loss of the season was the opening meet with Boston University on October 14. On October 20, however, the Tufts harriers trounced Wesleyan at Middletown, Conn., 25-31, with Atkinson winning a first place, thirty seconds short of the Wesleyan course record. Nygaard and Lee placed fourth and fifth.

Amherst was our next victim by a score of 17-49. Atkinson and Nygaard finished hand-in-hand in first place in this meet, with Lee, Emery, Paige, Morganson, and Lewis running from fourth to eighth respectively. In the triangular meet at Franklin Park, Tufts defeated two good teams from M. I. T. and Northeastern when Atkinson and Nygaard finished together with a course time of 22:11.4, while Lee took fifth place. The score: Tufts 33, M. I. T. 35, Northeastern University 56.

Tufts upset the dopesters in the New England meet at Franklin Park by winning a good fifth place. In this meet, Atkinson forced Don Smith of Maine, the winner, to the very fast time of 21:16, while "Bill" chased him in in 21:50. Nygaard took a sixth in the meet.

Atkinson, Nygaard, two of the best runners in Tufts history, and Jillson, a consistent point gainer, have all run their last races for Tufts.

FENCING

FENCING, the newest sport to be adopted by Tufts, had its beginning here in 1937. It has grown by leaps and bounds and, for the past two years, a fencing team has represented this college in intercollegiate competition

This year the team was composed of Captain William Gerber, Walter Allan, and Edwin Whitney of the Class of 1940, Peter Piecewicz and Herbert Wight of the Class of 1941, and Alvin Natanson, Nelson Blackburn, Joseph Mazmanian, and Donald Morse of the Class of 1942.

The schedule included matches with Brown, Norwich, Bowdoin, Boston University, Boston College, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Rollins College (Florida). Nelson Blackburn served in the double role of a playing manager.

In the first year of the sport's existence at Tufts only the foils were used. The following season the epee was added and with the addition of the sabre the following term, a full, three-weapon team came into being.

With only three men lost to the team this June by graduation and with four years of experience behind it, fencing now appears to be definitely established at Tufts and should enjoy a successful season in 1940-41.

No summary of fencing at Tufts would be complete without a word of appreciation for Emile Pelletier '39, largely through whose efforts fencing became established at Tufts College.

SKI CLUB

AS TUFTS continues to grow in influence, this organization is contributing its share in spreading the game of the college and in adding to its activities. The Tufts College Ski Club was founded in 1937-38 by William Ballard. Since then the club has grown in membership until it now includes well over fifty students and many alumni.

"Four Winds" at Plymouth, New Hampshire was the destination of the first ski trip in 1937, and subsequent two-day excursions to Ferncroft Lodge in Wonolancet, and to the Tufts Mountain Club lodge in Plymouth followed in 1938, '39, and '40. Co-operating with a new Tufts organization, the Mountain Club, it has found a destination for many of its future trips.

A hike up the slopes of Mount Monadnock in November was the first excursion of this year, and served to acquaint the new members. The first open meeting occurred a few weeks later and featured an illustrated lecture by Chauncy Waldron who has sailed with Commodore Macmillan on several of his voyages to the Arctic Seas.

Early in the fall four officers were elected to whom no small part of the club's success during the year was due. The president is Albert A. Schaal, the vice-president, Chauncy Waldron, the secretary-treasurer, Arthur Walsh, and the Jackson representative, Elizabeth Emmons.

FRESHMAN

THE Tufts Freshman football team opened its 1939 grid campaign at the Tufts Oval with a 19-0 victory over a heavier and more experienced Dean outfit. Bisset, Fogarty, Dowd, and Moschella showed their worth in this first battle. Although, throughout the next contest, the Frosh were superior to the Huntington eleven, misfortune struck the Jumblets in the last minute of play when a Tufts passer was brought down behind the goal line effecting a 2-0 Huntington win. Northeastern, with a heavier and more experienced club, added next to the Jumblet woes with a 24-0 win to its credit. Except for a few brief plays featuring Moschella, Mernich, Bisset, and Pickard, the encounter was all N. U. Performing far more impressively than in any of the previous contests, the Jumblets nailed back a strong Lawrence Academy team to the tune of 12-7. Richardson, Pickard, Moschella, Fogarty, Mernich, and Dowd carried out their usual capable performances in this skirmish. And in the last contest of their Freshman existence, the Jumblets bowed to a superior Andover squad 19-6. Lettermen for the year were: G. Mernich, R. J. Rowell, D. J. Fogarty, E. C. Richardson, P. S. McDonald, I. A. Rowson, W. Price, R. L. Bisset, J. J. Dowd, R. B. Watkins, B. L. Moschella, A. H. Pickard, J. D. McBeath, W. T. Kelley, J. M. Condon, E. E. Parker, D. Pickering and D. Foulkes, Managers.

The soccer team enjoyed a season with three wins, one tie, and two losses in which sterling play was evidenced. High scorers for the team included Teodorson, Jenkinson, and Giknis, who along with Day, Binks, Thomas, Scott, Stetzer, Edwards, Derr, Cimaglia, Gallagher, and Gehling won their numerals.

Working with excellent precision and speed, the Jumblet basketballers knocked off Monson Academy with a score of 50-33. Winning the next two with Northeastern and New Hampshire, they lost a one point game to the Brown club and followed with four wins, taking B.U.,

M. I. T., Springfield, and Harvard over the hurdles. Losing to a powerful Rhode Island team, the Jumblets came back with a big win over Huntington. They lost by one point in their next encounter with Andover, but concluded the season with three straight wins over Brown, Babson Institute, and Lawrence Academy. This year's aggregate was a brilliant team on the offensive and defensive which is shown by their record of twelve wins to three losses. The excellent work of DelNinno, Dowd, Vitkauskas, Redgate, and Mernick will certainly do much to keep the varsity right on top the next three years. Those winning their numerals were: J. Weldon, N. A. DelNinno, J. J. Dowd, G. W. Mernick, E. Richardson, H. V. Redgate, J. A. Gehling, J. Vitkauskas, H. G. Thompson, R. Anderson and D. Foulkes, Manager.

The wrestling unit had a fair season this year. The results showed a tie, 20-20 with Harvard, a win over M. I. T. 33-5. They lost the next five, Andover, Amherst, Springfield, Wesleyan and Exeter. Numeral winners included: S. T. Freedman, H. G. Derr, R. G. Hayton,

W. Wright, Jr., E. Forsley, C. J. Hamway, J. Lippas, and J. P. Withington.

The indoor track season opened with the B. C. meet on home grounds, and closed with M. I. T. after splitting the meets, two wins and two losses. High scorers included R. Long, W. Price, and D. Reid. Numerals were also awarded to R. Smith, E. Pagliarulo, M. Hutchins, R. Peterson, J. Welch, T. Rockwell, and B. Watkins.

The baseball season opened on April 13 with Harvard as the first opponent. The team, made up of high and prep school stars, had a successful season against Northeastern, Middlesex, Groton, Boston University, Andover, Dean, Boston College, Huntington and Lawrence Academy.

The tennis team was able to give a good account of itself because it was manned by many former stars in this sport.

INTRAMURAL

THE program of "Athletics for all; All in athletics" was well carried out this year at Tufts with the enlarged Intra-mural activities taking place from December to May. Mr. Chester Delano, assisted by "Art" Griffin, "Ted" Sheehan, "Pop" Starosta, and "Joe" Bevilacqua directed tournaments in basketball, squash, softball, track and baseball in which a large number of students participated.

Over two hundred and thirty players made up twenty-four basketball teams, which were divided into three leagues: Fraternity, won by the A. T. O.'s, Blue, won by the Hooper House five, and the Brown, won by last year's intra-mural champs, Wilson House. In the semi-finals, Hooper House defeated Wilson House 25-24 to meet the A. T. O.'s for the championship of the college on Intra-mural night, held this year on March 15.

The Hooper House team, composed of Bezuka, Sedurski, Carew, Bounakes and Bennett, defeated the fraternity team, Hanabury, Kolligian, Powers, Chiros, and Lewis 22-12 for the college crown. The final standings of the basketball tournament:

Fraternity	Blue	Brown
ATO	Hooper House	Wilson House
ZP	Royals	Mechanical
		Engineers
DTD	West Hall	Sophomore
		Engineers
PEP	1941	Dean Hall
SOP		Nutmeggers
AKP		N. C. A. C.
TDC
DU	Paige Hall	Stat Volts
		West Hall

Approximately one hundred and thirty took part in the wrestling tournament which closed on Intra-mural Night. In the 118 pound class, Bill McMahon of TDC won a decision over Kim Crocker of DU; in the 125 pound class, Wicks of ZP pinned Nash of DTD; in the 135 pound class, Al Simmons of DU pinned Art Koenig of DU in 5:43 minutes; Bob Buell of DU pinned Al Budzynkiewicz of AKP at 145 pounds in 3:03 minutes; in the 155's Jack West of TDC pinned

Sullivan of AKP in the record time of 30 seconds. Comic relief was afforded in the 165 pound class when Ed Nalband of ATO pinned Mark Hanabury after a few minutes of unorthodox collegiate wrestling; at 175 pounds, Tom Chiarra of ATO pinned Beckvold of ATO in 2:40 minutes, and in the unlimited class, Page of ATO won a decision from Sparrow of ATO. Charms were awarded all finals winners. The final standings in Intra-mural wrestling are the following:

1. ATO 55 points; 2. AKP 42 points;
3. DU 36 points; 4. TDC 29 points;
5. DTD 20 points; 6. ZP 16 points;
7. PMD 5 points; 8. PEP 3 points.

The winners in the Wrestling competition in each class were as follows:

118 lb Class—Bill McMahon, TDC
125 lb Class—George Wicks, ZP
135 lb Class—Al Simmons, DU
145 lb Class—Bob Buell, DU
155 lb Class—Jack West, TDC
165 lb Class—Ed Nalband, ATO
175 lb Class—Tom Chiarra, ATO

Forty-three men took part in the squash tournament which was won by DTD who won eight and lost none. The rest of the field followed in the following order: PEP, AKP, DU, TDC, ZP, ATO, Dean Hall and SOP.

The members of the undefeated Delta Tau Delta squash team for 1939-40 are as follows:

Henry Linden
Wally Baylies
Cliff Miller
Art Milhench
Hal Kennison
Hump Hosmer

The spring athletics drew a large crowd of participants and many well-played contests took place in an effort to determine the all-college, all-sports championship, held for the last two years by the Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

JACKSON ATHLETICS

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

JACKSON athletics are directed by the Athletic Association Council, which is made up of five officers, three Outing Club officers, and the managers of the various sports. This year's officers were as follows: President, Betty Emmons '40, Vice-President, Theiss English '40, Secretary, Caroline Barker '41, Treasurer, Barbara Chamberlain '42, and Freshman Representative, Janet Foster '43.

The Council meets weekly with Miss Ruth Lincks to plan intramural activities, inter-collegiate sports programs, and Outing Club events. With the suggestions of the sports coaches the Council also determines the number of A. A. points to be awarded to various members of the teams.

Inter-collegiate competition is held in hockey, archery, golf, basketball, and tennis. In all of these sports Jackson plays her traditional rivals, Wheaton, Pembroke, and Radcliffe.

Outing Club activities included this year, as usual, a Fall picnic to Cedar Hill, bowling, swimming, skating, and bielele parties, and a Spring canoc picnie on the Charles River. The Outing Club Chairman Peggy Brown '41 and her two assistants worked successfully with the Council to provide at least one activity every month for the student body.

The major sports were supplemented each season by such additional activities as badminton, riding, bowling, ping-pong, and skiing. A badminton club was formed this year under the direction of Miss Eleanor Dexter. Intramural competition was held in tennis and basketball.

Field Day, which was held in May, is also supervised by the A. A. Council. Four sorority teams, the Jumbos, and the Brownies competed in archery, golf, horse shoes, ring tennis, and badminton. A supper was served afterward in Jackson gymnasium.

HOCKEY

JACKSON major sports were particularly enriched this year by strong material drawn from the freshman class. To this general rule, field hockey was no exception.

In playing against her three traditional rivals, Pembroke, Wheaton, and Radcliffe, Jackson ran the gamut of three possible scores; that is, she won over Pembroke, tied with Radcliffe, and was beaten by Pembroke. The games with Wheaton and Radcliffe were played on home ground, but to play with Pembroke the team went to Providence.

This year's squad was led by co-captains Theiss English and Betty Emmons. Also outstanding were Patricia MacLeod, as goalie, Sally Elwyn, a freshman, and Barbara Hammond, a sophomore.

The team finished its fall season safely on the right side of snow.

ARCHERY

ARCHERY, long one of the favorite sports among Jackson students, has been fortunate in recent years in attaining a position among tennis, basketball, and hockey, the major women's sports. Under the capable leadership of Captain Gertrude Aitchison and with an excellent group of girls, the team has been one of the most successful in Jackson athletics. The growth in popularity of archery is indicative of the general trend toward sports in which individuals may participate, rather than solely groups. Archery is singular, also, in that it may be developed and enjoyed after graduation, as well as during college. Last fall, the team was represented at a meet held at Connecticut State College. In the spring, it competed in the national telegraphic meet, held annually. Intramural competition in archery on Field Day brought the year to a close.

BASKETBALL

THIS year's basketball squad was exceptional in many respects. In the first place, it was exceptionally able. Its first team was outstanding among those of recent years. Miss Eleanor Dexter, coach of the squad, attributes some of the success of the team to an enlarged playing schedule. In addition to the three regulars, Wheaton, Radcliffe, and Pembroke, Jackson met three newcomers, New Hampshire, Posse, and the Alumnae. The team profited by the stimulating rivalry of these three extra games. A long practice season in preparation for two or three games runs the danger of becoming monotonous and breaking down the morale of the players.

The team was exceptional, secondly, because its captain, Dorothy Marsh, had to give up playing and succumb to an appendectomy. Carol Barker was chosen captain in her place.

And the last exception concerning this exceptional team was that every member of the first team line-up was an underclass girl. With all these veterans returning next year, prospects for an even more successful season are happy indeed.

DANCING

NOT a sport but a form of art, modern dancing in recent years has stimulated much interest and won recruits from every class in Jackson. Assisted greatly by the skill of Miss Lincks, who coaches the group, the girls have this year continued their diligent efforts to master the requirements of technique, and have done some creative work. Essential to skill in modern dancing are comprehension of rhythm, understanding of the principles of dance composition, and hours of practice to attain the skill requisite to beautiful performance. Three seniors who have worked with the group since their freshman year, Helen Moors, Elinor Gilliatt, and Jane Parker, are especially outstanding in performance, loyalty, and interest in the dance. For the enjoyment of the college public, the Jackson All Around Club sponsored a dance recital in March, given by Doris Humphrey and Charles Weidman. Too difficult to be really popular as a recreational sport, modern dancing is most enjoyed by the girls who are willing to work intensively for a goal of beautiful creative art.

TENNIS

VARSITY tennis is the major sport of the Spring and one of the most popular of the year. The tennis team was especially fortunate this year in that it lost only one player by graduation in 1939. Several freshmen were added to an already large squad, so that the best possible playing combinations might be worked out. The team was coached by Miss Lincks and captained by its first singles player, Ruth Glidden '40. Miriam Nash '41 served as manager for the team, which held matches with Jackson's traditional rivals, Pembroke, Radcliffe, and Wheaton. The Wheaton game was held at Norton, but the other matches were played on Jackson's own courts.

The varsity program was supplemented by a mixed tournament of several Tufts-Jackson teams. This idea was originated in 1939 and met with surprising success. A Jackson intramural competition was held in the Fall as usual. This tournament was won by Alpha Omicron Pi.

GOLF

GOLF, the newest organized Jackson sport, is far from being a new interest of Jackson students as individuals. The annual Field Day competition in the spring has for several years included golf as one of the intramural competitive sports. With the enthusiasm aroused from last year's Field Day and a number of very able golfers, a team was formed with the intention of building up an intercollegiate program for this year. Last fall the first result of the new activity was a triangular meet held at Jackson, in which Wheaton and Radcliffe were our opponents. Jackson placed second in the meet, with Wheaton first, and Radcliffe third. The second tournament of the year was held at Wheaton in the spring. Plans for next year include an extension of competition to include other teams from nearby colleges.

THE social, scholastic and athletic life at Tufts is deeply correlated with the fraternity life. Local chapters of nine of the national fraternities and four of the national sororities offer to the students of Tufts and Jackson an opportunity to make and keep life-long friendships.

The fraternities are all situated in their own houses with several new houses completed in the last four years. The sororities are situated in rooms in private homes.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCILS

FRATERNITIES

THE Inter-fraternity Council has the duty of establishing and supporting Rush Week Rules and running Inter-fraternity Weekend. This year's Council conducted a very successful Weekend with Claude Hopkins' orchestra playing at the Ball. The Council is composed of two representatives from each fraternity. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Lauris Grant; Vice President, Gordon Willey; Sec.-Treas., Leo Geary.

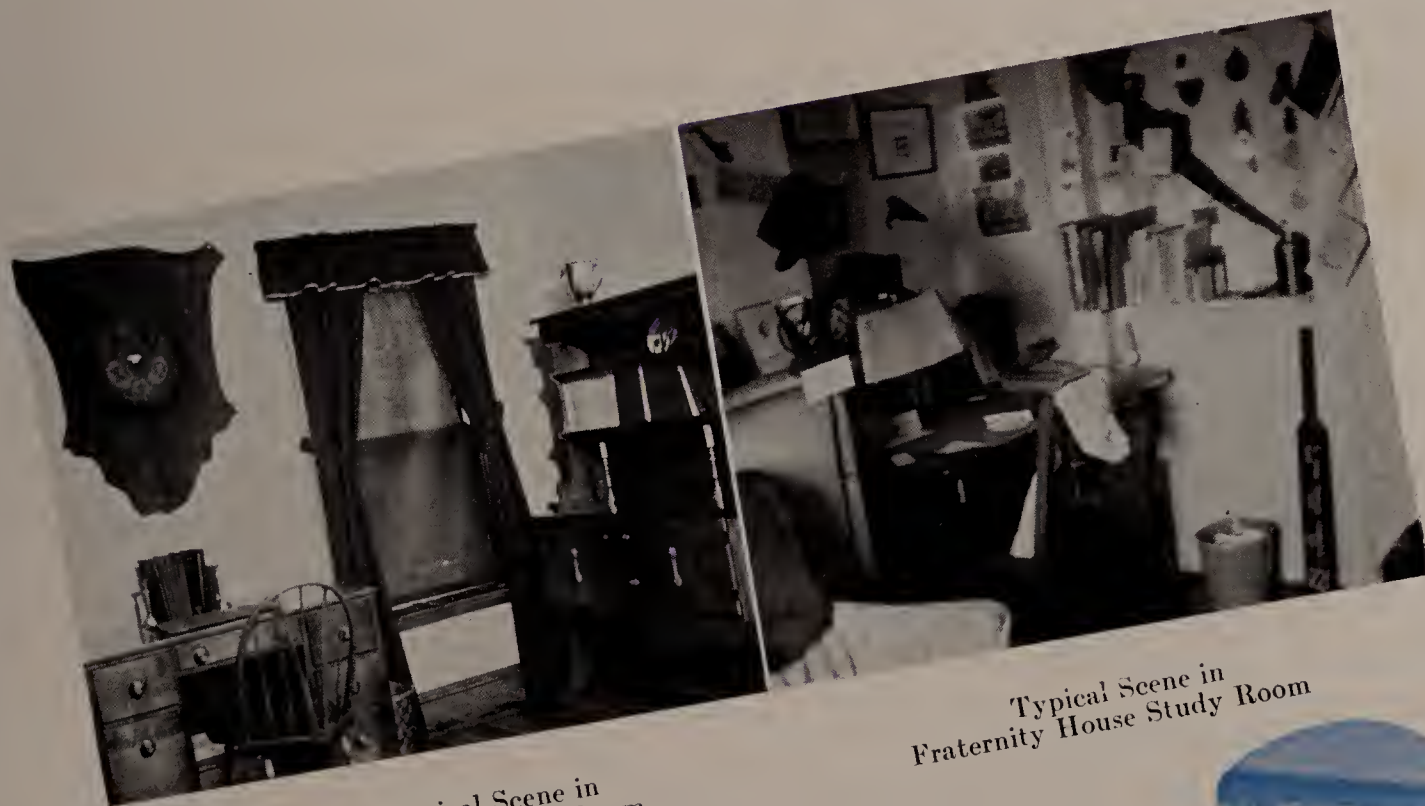

The Pan-Hellenic Council has control over the activities of the four sororities. Officers for 1939-1940: President, Eunice Griswold; Vice President, Helen Moors; and Sec.-Treas., Marion Savage.

FOUNDED in 1907, the Commons Club became a local fraternity, Delta Phi Sigma, in 1926, and in 1931 joined the national fraternity, Alpha Kappa Pi, as its Tau Chapter. The national fraternity comprises twenty-five undergraduate chapters, numbering over 2600 members, and nine alumni chapters. Since 1931, Tau Chapter has acquired a new house of colonial design accommodating twenty-one members, and maintained its integral position in the Tufts College community.

This year, as in years past, the forty-five members and pledges endeavored to keep the fraternity prominent in the affairs of the Hill socially, athletically, and scholastically, through representation in the various sports, class offices, honor societies, student publications, college and club activities.

During the course of the year, the fraternity sponsored a number of formal and informal dances and special parties, and a banquet was held for newly initiated members.

As one of the alumni chapters is located in Boston, many of the local alumni take an active interest in the affairs of the chapter.

Having won, in recent years, the Fraternity Athletic Award and the Fraternity Scholastic Award, in addition to a number of lesser awards, Alpha Kappa Pi views the future with confidence and ambition, all the while offering the athletic, social, scholastic, and cultural benefits of fraternity membership to the college students of average financial position.

THE PAST summer marked the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of Alpha Tau Omega and saw a number of the brothers of Gamma Beta Chapter making the trip to the biennial conclave which was held this year in Richmond, Virginia, where the original chapter was founded at Virginia Military Institute. Delegates from each of the ninety-eight active chapters as well as a number of interested undergraduates and alumni helped to make this conclave a huge success.

A great deal of satisfaction was felt by all the brothers in the way the banquet and entertainment went off for the underprivileged youngsters of the neighborhood who were rounded up with the help of local welfare agencies and brought to the house. Many fine and appreciative letters were received from their parents proving this effort to be exceptionally worthwhile and one which should be continued in the future.

With three class presidents, many members and pledges participating on all of the athletic teams, a number of successful social functions, including "Vic" parties and several formals, Alpha Tau Omega can undoubtedly consider the year 1939-40 a prosperous one from every point of view.

Having a well-rounded, congenial membership, Alpha Tau Omega has every reason to expect even greater achievements in the future and looks forward with every confidence to the coming year.

THE BETA MU Chapter of Delta Tau Delta launched their activities for the 1939-40 season with the S. S. Delta, which was the chapter house itself converted into a ship by very elaborate decorations. This nautical dance climaxed a rush week that was filled with a variety of events staged for the freshmen.

The Inter-fraternity Weekend was featured by a spread of Smorgasbord (a Scandinavian delicacy) which went over exceptionally well, and in December the pledge formal found everyone at the house dancing amidst tropical surroundings. Delta Tau Delta won second choice at the community sing which was conducted by Tower Cross and in which many different college groups competed.

The Delts entertained a large body of sub-freshmen during the week-end set aside for prospective students and many of these boys took advantage of the opportunity to meet some of the professors at the faculty tea on Sunday. It was generally agreed that the spring formal this year was the best ever, and it more than furnished a fitting conclusion for the social calendar.

The Delta stock in sports took an appreciable rise this year. Several boys won their "T's", the bowling team made a very good showing, and the house basketball and squash teams were particularly outstanding in the intramural league. In addition to sports, some of the members were active in the band, the glee club, the orchestra, and especially in the 3 P's.

When everything is considered, it is apparent that Delta Tau Delta enjoyed one of the most successful school years that it has ever known.

THE DELTA UPSILON Fraternity was founded in 1834 as a non-secret organization. It has grown continually since that date, and at the present time there are 61 chapters in the United States and Canada. The Tufts Chapter was admitted to the fraternity in 1886.

This year's rushing was successful with twenty-one men pledging to the fraternity. Delta Upsilon has also maintained her standing in campus activities having members in the Student Council, Tower Cross, and Sword and Shield.

In intramural sports the trophy of trophies, championship cup, became the possession of the fraternity after having won three years of competition in interfraternity sports. The fraternity has been fortunate in the past year in having its members active in the "letter" sports of the college, Tufts publications, and musical organizations.

Highly successful social events during the year included several formal dances and a large attendance of brothers at the Interfraternity Ball. The formal dinner dance, which was held in the house as a new experiment, was probably the most successful dance of the year. Other events included entertainment of our alumni and brothers from other colleges, informal gatherings with individual faculty members, a dinner for the Alumni Council, informal Saturday night parties, and the most impressive affair of the year—the Initiation Banquet.

With fine representation in the lower classes, D. U. promises to hold a high position "on the Hill" in the future years.

OMICRON CHAPTER

Established in 1913

CULMINATING a two-year drive, the immediate ambition of Phi Epsilon Pi was realized when it purchased a new house this year. The complete cooperation of the alumni of the chapter and the goal-striving efforts of the actives accounted for this achievement. The growing membership of the chapter necessitated new and larger quarters, which the recently purchased house amply provides.

Coincident with the realization of this dream was the attainment by the chapter of the highest scholastic record in the index of the National Interfraternity Council since 1926, including 2100 chapters at more than 170 institutions. For the second successive year, Phi Epsilon Pi was presented with the President's Loyalty Award at the annual Academic Honors Ceremony.

Socially, the chapter's activity was concentrated in the annual Alumni Banquet, this year a Victory Banquet, and the usual Mid-winter and Spring formals. At the banquet, extensive plans were begun for the celebration of Omicron's Silver Jubilee Anniversary in 1941, the peak of a twenty-five year existence at Tufts. The institution, started years ago in the chapter, of a

Parents' Day was continued this year in a way which gave marked credit to the members.

In rushing, Phi Epsilon Pi had the success of gathering into its folds an unusually large number of pledges, who are ably carrying on the traditions of high scholarship and participation in extra-curricular activities.

NU IOTA Chapter of Phi Mu Delta began its activities officially with the annual rush week program. During that time a greater number of men were entertained than at any other time since the establishment of the Tufts Chapter. Ending the program the major event was the house dance on Friday evening at which time fifty-two invited couples danced. Net result of the week's rushing came with the pledging of 19 men forming the third largest pledge class among the Hill's national fraternities.

After the usual pledge walk and early freshman meetings, the house settled down to the business of extra-curricular activity and entered a strong team in the Interfraternity Bowling League which at the end of the first round placed in a tie for second place with Alpha Kappa Pi.

Continuing its major interest in the college's musical clubs, Phi Mu Delta placed a large group of men in each organization—in fact, the largest group of men from a single house.

Phi Mu Delta had several men on varsity sports teams.

With the complete refurnishing of the house, renewed interest in the "Vic" parties was shown, and they were held frequently, especially during the football season.

The final and gayest event of the first term was the Christmas Formal at Furnace Brook with the Harvard Gold Coast Orchestra furnishing the music. Again Nu Iota met great success in importing girls from outlying colleges.

THE YEAR 1939 to 1940 has been one which will long be remembered by the fraters of Mu Chapter of Sigma Omega Psi Fraternity. Its events—affairs at the Chapter House, pledge and formal dances, intra-mural competition, inter-chapter tournaments, and fraternity business—when all poured into one year's time make that year a memorable one.

The season commenced with the week of fraternity rushing. Mu compiled a very interesting program for the prospective men; the net result was nine pledges.

In step with its high social standard, Mu Chapter sponsored two very fine pledge-formal dances, in December and May, both thoroughly enjoyed by all those attending. The various house-parties, ranging from barn-dances to Sunday tea-dances, rounded out the successful "social" year.

The expanding scope of intra-mural competition found Mu Chapter all the more enthusiastic to participate. Beginning with the basketball league, the year included squash, baseball, track, and golf. Although Mu gained no material rewards for its endeavors, it is proud of its team's performances.

For the fourth consecutive year Mu succeeded in winning the New England District Council award in the inter-chapter basketball tournament. This event, held in the Cousens Gymnasium, was the most successful in many seasons.

In retrospect, then, Mu Chapter will always hold this year, 1939–1940, as one of its most prosperous, fraternally, socially, athletically, and scholastically.

KAPPA Charge of Theta Delta Chi was founded at Tufts in 1856 and has been in continuous existence ever since. It now ranks as the oldest active charge in Theta Delta Chi.

Another banner year for Kappa commenced with a complete painting of the charge house by all the brothers. Rush Week results showed that Theta Delta Chi led the other fraternities with twenty-five pledges.

The fall was made very pleasant by the surprise visit of the president of the Grand Lodge of Theta Delta Chi, Burton A. King of U. C. L. A. It took little time to show him why Kappa is Theta Delta Chi's top charge.

Our annual graduate night was held on October twenty-eighth with an excellent turnout of our Elder Brothers. Three days later we celebrated our Founder's Day by having a smoker at the charge house with the M. I. T. brothers as invited guests.

In the field of sports, football found four of the brothers winning a "T" while soccer gave letters to two more brothers. A third varsity captain was added to our ranks when Jack West was elected captain of the 1940 football team. The Tufts Weekly, the band, and three P's all had Theta Delta Chi representatives.

The highlight of the social season was the Christmas Formal which found the charge house completely transformed into a scenic winter setting. Two formals in the spring, a faculty tea, and other informal dances rounded out a successful social program.

THE KAPPA CHAPTER of the Zeta Psi Fraternity of North America opened the semester with a very successful rushing season. Then to give the new pledges and the Elder Brothers a chance to meet and to show their friends and families the house, a series of enjoyable teas and house-parties was held during the football season.

A banquet was held at the house for Elder Brother Walter Weisleder, formerly of the corporation, when he changed his place of business to Chicago.

We celebrated the introduction of the twenty pledges to the social life of the Kappa Chapter by a Pledge Formal held at the Hotel Kenmore. The next big event was the Christmas party, immediately before the vacation. Then came the Spring Formal and the closing of the season with the Annual Spring Picnic.

The Zetes carried on the old tradition in sports, having five freshmen numeral men, two in football, and three in soccer. Also in our midst were: the two assistant managers of varsity football, the manager of freshman football, the manager and assistant manager of freshman basketball, as well as the future manager of the freshman football team. We were well represented in the other athletic teams, as well as in the field of interfraternity sports.

Among the freshman group were two of the class officers. We were proud to see our president initiated into the honor fraternity of Phi Beta Kappa.

WHEN Delta Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi started its fall season, five of its members were fresh from a convention jaunt to Pasadena, California. First results of this impact of enthusiasm were redecorations for our rooms.

In the fall tennis tournament Delta succeeded in winning the prized plaque. Mrs. Arthur Cochran consented to be one of our patronesses. Seeing Betty Dunn again was pleasant and we enjoyed the movies she had taken in her travels through Europe as Secretary to Mrs. Joseph Kennedy.

November was a banner month. There was our fashion show, sponsored by William Filene and Son in Jackson Gym. And then, even more worthy of banners, was a visit from Helen Haller, our national president, who was with us at our Founders' Day Banquet. Guest speaker at the banquet was Mrs. Breckenridge, founder of the Kentucky Frontier Nursing Service.

Reminiscent of a formal two years ago, the Fall Formal was held at the Fox and Hounds Club in Boston . . . fireplace and huge window overlooking the Charles and the lighted buildings of Tech. The Christmas party was in our rooms. At the inter-fraternity sing, just before Christmas, Delta placed among the three finalists.

Vacation and mid-years took out a large chunk of time. But with rush party, pledge dinner, guest speakers, and Senior Farewell party the year was complete.

THE new Chapter room of Alpha Xi Delta was established at Powder House Square. Our first entertainment following the decoration of the new rooms was a house-warming in the form of a tea for the Boston Alumnae Chapter.

During the busy fall season, Mrs. Meyes, president of Province I, visited the Chapter and was honored at tea and at a banquet. Our new patroness, Mrs. Wessell, was presented at a tea given by Mrs. Burden. We were presented with a silver tea tray, the award of Boston Pan Hellenic to that Boston sorority which made the greatest improvement in scholarship.

Heralding the coming of the winter season was the annual fall dinner dance, held at the Hotel Sheraton. A banquet was given in honor of the six December initiates at the new Terrace Club. Christmas means a party for Alpha Xi, and this year Mrs. Manly was hostess. Perhaps the busiest and most successful of our activities this year was the Alpha Xi Delta Beauty Bazaar, a Pan Hellenic project sponsored by Helena Rubenstein.

Only our spring prospects remain to complete the cycle of 1939-1940: For pledges—initiation and Founders' Day banquet at Seiler's 1775 House, on April 17th; For fun—the annual country club formal—the picnic at Crane's Beach, with farewell gifts for seniors; For reunion—the tea on Mother's Day for Alpha Xis and their mothers; For travel—the Province Convention at Syracuse, with two delegates from Lambda.

CHI ALPHA prepared for a year's activities by sending its president, Jane Carter, to a regional fireside conference in Pennsylvania. Several new ideas were brought back to the Hill and acted upon by the Chapter. A series of round table discussions was held on the sorority constitution, history, magazine, etc. The Chapter also had the privilege of entertaining several faculty speakers. Professor John Holmes spoke to the sorority on the subject "Friendship", Dean Skinner on "Marriage", and Miss Dexter on "Why College?".

At the academic awards ceremony in October, Chi Omega was awarded the Pan Hellenic Scholarship Cup.

Because the Chapter felt that the sorority rooms were not being used often enough frequent suppers were held before meetings. The rooms were also used for Patroness' Tea and for the usual Pan Hellenic teas.

The annual Fall Formal was held in December at the Hotel Brunswick. A few weeks later the patronesses entertained Chi Alpha at a Christmas party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bartlett. During the party a mysterious Santa Claus paid a short visit. The Chapter also gave a Christmas party in the rooms for some underprivileged children from Boston. As further Christmas celebration, Chi Omega surprised itself by winning the inter-fraternity sing.

Spring activities included a Pop concert featuring Tufts and Jackson talent, a pledge dinner, the Eleusinian celebration in April, the Spring Formal, and a Mothers' Day Tea.

OMICRON Chapter of Sigma Kappa was launched on a most successful year when in July Harriet Blodgett and Betty Cheney represented the chapter at the 50th International Convention of Sigma Kappa, held in San Francisco. Soon after college reopened, Mrs. Ruth Donnelly, one of Sigma Kappa's two traveling secretaries, visited us. During her stay in October, we held a formal initiation, followed by a banquet at Howard Johnson's English Hunt Room. Founders' Day in November was celebrated with a memorial program and supper in the sorority rooms.

The outstanding event of the fall social season was the dinner dance held in December at the Captain's Cabin of the Myles Standish Hotel. The Community Sing in December was another pleasureable event, and our Christmas party with our patronesses at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Blanchard was an evening long to be remembered.

In January the Sigmas used their spare moments to move all their possessions into new rooms at the home of Professor and Mrs. W. S. Yeager, on Talbot Avenue. With much decorating and the addition of a new piano, we were completely installed in time for rush week.

Following a belated pledging, social events again began to loom large on our horizon. The pledge formal, the spring formal, and the senior farewell party concluded the year. The Sigmas, strong in "One heart, one way", look forward eagerly to new activities and friendships next year.

THE diversified life at Tufts in its numerous schools and activities is depicted on the next four pages in a collection of pictures acquired during the four years the present Seniors have been on the Hill.

The "pictorial history" is not supposed to be complete or chronological; it is merely a sampling here and there from four very eventful years. We hope that in the years to come these pictures will bring back fond memories.

FEATURES

TUFTS

MANY events of history making importance have taken place since the members of the Class of 1940 first entered the chapel doors in September, 1936. We have cheered, we have mourned, we have wondered, and we have praised; but above all we have been increasingly thankful as the years have passed that we chose Tufts College as our college.

We love Tufts because of its beauty, the magnificence of its memorial stairway, the new Bowen Porch on Ballou Hall, and the new Prexy's house.

We love Tufts because of its friendliness, because of the habit of saying "Hello" to everyone we meet, because of the informal groups that gather between classes in front of Braker Hall, or the Library, or Packard, or Robinson.

We love Tufts because of the individuals connected with the college, because of "Ole" the mailman, because of Lew Manly the football coach, because of students such as Bill Atkinson and Laurie Grant.

We love Tufts because of the fraternity spirit exemplified two years ago in the statues built in snow in front of the houses. We love Tufts because of the spirit of goodwill fostered in the winter by the skiing on the Hill.

COLLEGE ACTIVITIES 1939-1940

HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR FOUR YEARS

AMONG the history making events transpiring during our stay at Tufts was the sudden passing of Dr. Albert Cousens and the appointment of Leonard Carmichael as President of Tufts College. The inauguration was one of the most colorful and noteworthy affairs on the Hill in recent years.

This year the band staged a poverty parade at the beginning of the year in a successful attempt to raise funds to purchase a new set of uniforms. The attractive outfits added greatly to the pep and appearance of the group at the football games this past fall.

Tufts enjoyed the most successful track season in its history during the past year. Lead by Co-captains Grant and Atkinson and aided by Outdoor-captain Pollard and Captain-elect Dugger, the team soared to memorable heights. In Eddie Dugger, Tufts has one of the greatest track men in the country.

An up and down football season was climaxed by an overwhelming defeat of Massachusetts State in the final game. Win or lose, Tufts athletes are always good sports and play solely for the fun of playing.

We have witnessed many changes during our four years. But as we look back and reflect, we would not have missed that experience for anything.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

No one person could possibly put out a book of the magnitude of the 1940 Jumbo Book. The success of this book is due to the combined enthusiasm and devotion of time of many people. We wish to thank all those who have helped in any way to make this edition possible. Among those who have contributed the most to the book, we wish to give special commendation to:

Mr. Paul K. Blanchard of the Warren Press, who has given of his valuable time and expert yearbook knowledge to help make this, his third Jumbo Book, the best yet.

Mr. Milton Fitch and Miss Cooper of the Howard-Wesson Co., who is chiefly responsible for the design and execution of the plan of this book and who have given time and enthusiasm to the engraving difficulties.

Mr. J. Franklin, Waid Junior and Senior and Mr. Breau for their expert photography and fine service.

Mr. Arthur Cochran for expert advice on financial matters and counsel throughout the year.

Prof. Melville Munro for several valuable pictures.

Prof. Clarence Houston for patient assistance in securing rooms in the Cousens Gymnasium.

And last, but by no means the least, to the Editorial Staff members who gave unceasingly of their time to the composition of this book. In particular to the Section Editors: Don Woods, Leo La Palme, Jim Haggerty, Bob Larkin, Dwight Ayers, Bill Hickey, Wally Baylies, and Bill Harrison.

To these and all others who helped, many thanks.
